

You are considering a purchase of original art directly from the artist. Your satisfaction is 100% guaranteed and every effort will be made to assure you have made the correct decision before it ships.

We want you to make an informed decision. Please do not hesitate to ask questions. Photographs and details on any specific piece can be supplied to serious buyers.

PAYMENT

All payments are handled through Pay Pal. Buyers must have a Pay Pal account. An invoice for the full amount will be sent, which will include shipping with insurance. Once payment has been sent and confirmed through Pay Pal your item will be shipped. Payment will remain in escrow until the buyer approves the purchase.

SHIPPING

The buyer may select USPS, UPS or FedEx. We suggest the least amount of transit time possible to insure the safe arrival of your piece. The buyer will receive a quote for shipping, handling and insurance prior to purchase by supplying a zip code, preferred carrier and preferred delivery method. Packaging costs of framed work will be slightly higher.

EXCHANGES

If you are not satisfied with your purchase you must request a return within 3 days of delivery. All exchanges must be packaged and shipped in the original manner in which it was sent and must be received in "as new" condition within 7 days of original delivery. Buyer will be responsible for return shipping fees and shipping of new piece, which must include insurance.

RETURNS

If you are not satisfied with your purchase or it is damaged during shipping you must request a return or report the damage within 3 days of delivery. All returns must be packaged and shipped in the original manner in which it was sent. All returns must be received in "as new" condition within 7 days of original delivery. Buyer will be responsible for return shipping fees, which must include insurance on the value of the piece. Refunds will be made through Pay Pal once the piece has returned, inspected and approved.

11/11/11